WELCOME

Each day at the JCCSF I have the pleasure of personally watching children express their imaginations in the garden, seeing the excitement of afterschool kids putting the final touches on their art, observing old friends connecting in our atrium over a cup of coffee, and delighting in the generations coming together to celebrate and tap into our Jewish culture and traditions. Every day we strive to be a community that is kinder, more thoughtful, more engaged with the people around us, and more empathetic to each other. We’re cultivating connections for a more vibrant community.

THROUGH DISCOVERY: Enriching the potential of every individual by nurturing curiosity and knowledge.

THROUGH WELL-BEING: Improving the health and well-being of our participants, our friends and our neighbors.

THROUGH PURPOSE: Supporting our communities by welcoming everyone and working together for a better world.

In these modern times, where choices, information and opportunities abound, thank you for spending your time and resources nurturing this community. It’s ever more valuable that Jewish culture and tradition support people in building a better world. Thank you for your support.

With gratitude,

Marci Glazer
MISSION & VALUES

OUR COMMUNITY

LAST YEAR, THE JCCSF SERVED OVER 100,000 PEOPLE

Each and every one of these people is essential to our community: the parents watching as their children grow into young adults and make lasting friendships in preschool and summer camp; the life-long learners taking initiative to educate and express themselves at any age; people of all backgrounds discovering the power of social good. This last year, our community came together in countless ways, and we’re proud to share a few highlights with you here.

13,000
Fitness members moved toward reaching their wellness goals annually

7,054
People attended complimentary educational events supporting Lifelong Learning

1,546
Teens built friendships at Friday night socials

20%
Preschool families benefited from financial assistance

5,672
Sculptures created in the Ceramics Studio

1,300
Summer campers shared their experience with friends & family

1,250
Children learned to swim each week

118,000
Families attended Shabbat Experiences
OUR COMMUNITY

6,300 PEOPLE IMPACTED

We emphasize doing Jewish over being Jewish by cultivating community, hosting gatherings and engaging in San Francisco civic life. This past year we hosted events to celebrate Passover, Purim and Hanukkah as well as marched in the San Francisco Pride Parade.

“Congratulations on an incredible event last night!... Yotam [Ottolenghi] and Samin [Nosrat] - who is the human embodiment of joy! - were a perfect pairing! And your introductory remarks moved me to tears and set the prefect tone for the evening. In these dark times, the whole evening was a much needed salve for the soul. The point was made repeatedly last night that food is a bridge to conversation and community, which makes the programming you’re organizing at the JCCSF so important.”

- Arts + Ideas Patron

With Arts & Ideas On Demand, we continued to offer live streams and video recordings of our programs - featuring big names with big ideas - expanding our audience by hundreds of thousands.

91,709 VIEWS & COUNTING

The most watched? Robert Sapolsky, Behave: The Biology of Humans at Our Best and Worst. Five times more viewers compared to prior year!
GROWING STRONG

The JCCSF is always working to grow and innovate. Here are a few of the new programs that we’ve continued to build this past year.

YOUTH INCLUSION INITIATIVE

We welcome children with special needs into our camp programs, opening the door to their further enrichment and providing unexpected growing opportunities for their peers.

TEEN ARTS IMMERSION PROGRAM

We’re creating interactive theatrical and artistic experiences that inspire and engage teen audiences that are rooted in Jewish Values. Teens engaged in the difficult topic of mental health and media literacy through Dear Evan Hansen, a theatrical program from About Face, and an exclusive Q&A with the cast.

JCCSF POP-UPS

The ever-changing variety of programs go beyond our walls to celebrate with shared meals, art workshops, live music and provocative explorations, all while doing Jewish culture at iconic San Francisco locales.

“I just wanted you to know that I appreciated you taking the time to connect with my little ones and me tonight at Hanukkah celebration. My whole Jewish side of my family is out of state, and although I have wanted to share my Jewish cultural upbringing with my kids - I have not done as much as I wish, due largely to not being a part of a Jewish community here. Anyhow, I just wanted to let you know how inviting you were, and calm despite my children’s slightly sugar crazed energy. Thanks again.”
